Welcome to Guardian Angel Cathedral

Guardian Angel Cathedral was built in 1963. For these many years, the Cathedral Staff has served not only the local families residing within its boundaries but also countless numbers of tourists who attend Mass in this sacred space on week days and weekends throughout the year. What a blessing it is that such a beautiful church is readily accessible to those who visit the Las Vegas Strip. We welcome all and encourage you to consider our Guardian Angel Cathedral your church away from home.

Since its very beginning, members of the Clerics of St. Viator (commonly known as Viatorians) have served the Bishops and people of Las Vegas as the administrators of Guardian Angel Cathedral.

The Viatorians were founded in 1831 by Father Louis Querbes in Lyons, France. Their international headquarters is in Rome, Italy and the office of the U. S. Provincial is located in Arlington Heights, Illinois. This religious community of men (Priests and Brothers) has as its patron a fourth century native of Lyons. St. Viator distinguished himself as a friend and teacher of youth as well as an assistant in the local cathedral and a companion to its Bishop, St. Just.

Dispensation from Form

PAUL TURNER

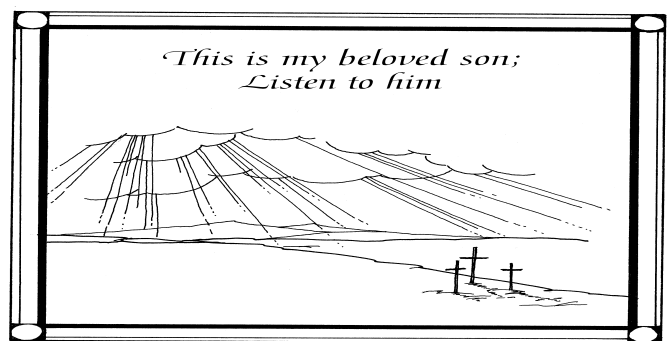

Sometimes a Catholic engaged to a person of a different faith wishes to have the marriage in the fiancé's church. Many Catholics believe that this can be done as long as a priest is present for the ceremony. That is not entirely true.

When a baptized Catholic marries, the wedding is expected to take place according to the canonical form of marriage. That is, it should be witnessed by a priest or a deacon in a Catholic church building according to the rite of marriage approved for use there. However, for good reasons, a Catholic may receive a dispensation from this canonical form. Most commonly, those reasons include the close connection between the non-Catholic party and the faith community of which he or she is a member. The dispensation shouldn't be granted because the other building is prettier or has a more appropriate size.

A dispensation from canonical form is granted by the bishop, often through the chancellor, after the parish priest of the Catholic party requests it. The Catholic party requests this of the priest, who fills out the appropriate papers and sends them to the chancery for approval.

This is what many do not understand: A dispensation from canonical form applies to more than the church building. It applies to the rite of marriage and to the minister. No Catholic priest or deacon has to be present for the wedding once the dispensation from form has been obtained. Many priests and deacons are happy to be there, and their presence is normally welcomed by the couple and relieves the Catholic family. But what makes the ceremony "Catholic" is not the presence of a Catholic priest or deacon but the paper work that few people see.
